OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Seventh Biennial Session

Senate.

MORNING SESSION

SALEM, Sept. 24, 1872.

Senate met at the usual morning hour, with President Fay in the Chair.

Roll called. All the Senators present.

Session opened with prayer by Rev. S. C. Adams, of Salem.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Hoult, from the Committee on Counties, reported back S. B. Nos. 6 and 7, and recommended their passage.

Monroe, from Committee on Engrossed Bills, reported S. B. Nos. 10, 11 and 13 correctly enrolled.

Hoult, from Committee on Enrolled Bills, reported S. J. R. No. 4 correctly enrolled.

Watson introduced S. B. No. 25, to provide for the sale of tide and overflowed lands on the sea coast of Oregon; also S. B. No. 27, to amend the law for the construction of the Canal and Locks at Willamette Falls. Both bills read first time and ordered printed.

Mr. Strahan introduced S. B. No. 27, to authorize the Supreme Court to appoint one or more bailiffs. Read first time, and under suspension of the rules, read second and third time and passed by a vote of 20 ayes to 2 noes.

S. B. No. 22, to provide for recording land patents, and S. B. No. 23, to amend the law regulating civil and criminal procedures in Justices' Courts, read second time and referred to Committee on Judiciary.

S. B. No. 10, to appropriate $25,000 out of the Swamp Land Fund for the construction of a road through Jackson, Grant and Baker counties, read third time. The bill names A. Langell, S. C. Mason and J. N. Miller, as Commissioners to superintend the construction of said road.

The question being, shall the bill pass, Mr. Fay said this bill was a peculiarly meritorious one. Jackson county is more poorly supplied with roads than any other county in the State. This road is necessary to save trade to Rogue River Valley and Southern Oregon, which is now being diverted to Yreka, California. The people in Southern Oregon, as well as those on the other side of the mountains, are peculiarly interested in the construction of this road. It is impossible to construct and keep in repair roads in this sparsely settled country by private enterprise, hence the necessity for the appropriation provided for in the bill. This proposed road passes contiguous to a large proportion of the best swamp lands in Oregon, and the moneys arising from the sale of such lands could not be better used than supplying them with means of communication.

Mr. Bristow wanted to offer an amendment to the bill, and moved to refer the bill to Committee on Roads and Highways. Motion lost and bill passed by vote of 19 yeas to 3 noes.

S. B. No. 11, to amend law relating to [illegible], was read a third time and, on motion, referred to Committee on Judiciary.

S. B. No. 13, to appropriate $10,000 of Swamp Land fund for the construction of a road from Crane Prairie, on the Dalles Military Road in Grant County, to the Silver City Road in Baker county, was read a third time.

Mr. Baldwin said this is a meritorious bill, and one well guarded in its provisions. The amount asked to be appropriated is small, while the proposed road will be of incalculable benefit to a large class of the citizens of Oregon who may not in years be able to procure a thoroughfare. The construction of this road will place us of the section in which it is to be built, in communication with the Central Pacific Railroad, hence the construction of the road not only interests the people through whose immediate section it passes, but is of vast interest to the whole of Eastern Oregon. This road, when constructed, is to be a free county road.

Mr. Cornelius was not satisfied that the bill was constitutional. He thought by its provisions the State became interested in the stock of the road company, which is expressly forbidden by the Constitution.

Mr. Baldwin didn't think the State either directly or indirectly interested in stock of said company. He had examined the law upon this point and was satisfied the bill was not thus affected.

On motion of Mr. Dolph, the bill was recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary.

S. B. No. 6, to define the boundary of Grant county, and S. B. No. 7, to regulate enclosures, were read a second time, and under suspension of the rules, were read third time and passed.

On motion, the Senate took a recess until 12 M.

12 M.—Called to order, and on motion of Mr. Cornelius, proceeded to ballot for United States Senator.

Mr. Cornelius nominated J. H. Mitchell, of Multnomah county.

Mr. Bristow nominated H. W. Corbett, of Multnomah county.

Mr. Brown, of Baker, nominated J. H. Slater, of Union county.

Mr. Myers nominated J. W. Nesmith of Polk county.

Mr. Hoult nominated John Whiteaker, of Lane county.

The roll was called and the vote stood as follows:

For Mitchell—Brown, of Marion, Cornelius, Cowles, Dolph, Hannah, Moores, Powell and Watson—8.

For Corbett—Bristow, Crystal, Webster—3.

For Slater—Brown, of Baker, Baldwin, Lenallyn—3.

For Nesmith—Crawford, Myers and Mr. President—3.

For Whiteaker—Hoult, Monroe, Patterson, Strahan, and Tolen—5.

The Chair announced that there was no election.

On motion, adjourned till 2 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Senate met at the usual hour, Mr. Fay in the Chair. Messrs. Brown, of Baker, Hoult and Powell were absent.

Mr. Strahan presented a petition from the citizens of Benton county, in relation to the location of the State University, and moved its reference to the Committee on Education. Carried.

Mr. Baldwin, from the Committee on Judiciary, reported back a substitute for H. J. R. No. 10, and recommended its passage.

Mr. Moores, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills, reported S. B. No. 12 as correctly engrossed.

Mr. Chrysman gave notice of the introduction of a bill to locate the State University.

S. B. No. 12, amending section 26, chapter 53, title 4 of the general laws of Oregon, relating to a levy of poll tax, read third time.

Mr. Myers moved to refer to the Committee on Judiciary as he wished to submit an amendment.

Mr. Baldwin objected, and Messrs. Cornelius and Dolph opposed the reference to the committee as they were opposed to the whole bill.

Mr. Webster was opposed to the bill on Constitutional objections. This bill should have originated in the House, as it is for the purpose of raising revenue.

Mr. Watson concurred with his colleague (Webster) as to the proper place for the bill to originate. He was in favor of the bill, but would oppose it because of the Constitutional objection urged by his colleague.

Mr. Cornelius opposed the bill on principle. He was opposed to giving power to County Courts to levy taxes.

The question being Shall the bill pass? the vote stood ayes 11, nays 11. The bill failed to pass.

S. B. No. 26, a substitute for H. J. R. No. 10, to appropriate $15,000 for mileage of the members of the Legislature, read first time. Rules suspended, bill read second and third time and passed.

A message from the House announced that the Speaker had signed sundry resolutions and bills.

On motion of Mr. Cornelius, the Senate resolved itself into Committee of the Whole on S. B. No. 5, for the protection of game and fish, which was taken up for consideration. Several amendments were proposed and adopted.

On Motion of Mr. Dolph, the committee rose and reported to the Senate the various amendments adopted in Committee of the Whole.

On motion of Mr. Cornelius, the amendments were adopted and the bill ordered engrossed and read the third time to-morrow.

Mr. Fay gave notice of the introduction of a bill to permit persons under indictment to testify in their own behalf.

Mr. Cornelius gave notice of the introduction of a bill to amend the law relating to the protection of the Fair Grounds. Adjourned.

House.

The House assembled in the Hall at the usual hour.

There being no clergyman present, the prayer was dispensed with.

The Speaker stated that important business compelled his presence before the Supreme Courts and appointed Mr. Burbank to occupy the Chair during his absence.

The Journal was read and the House proceeded to business.

H. B. No. 25, the consideration of which was yesterday postponed to this hour, was by motion of Mr. Caples, laid on the table till 2 o'clock, P. M.

A message from the Senate stated that that body had passed S. B. No. 7, and requesting action of the House thereon. Read first time in the House and referred to second reading.

Mr. Simpson offered the following resolution: "That at 12 o'clock M., this House do proceed to vote for a U. S. Senator." The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Stott's bill, to protect unincorporated towns, was read a second time and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

LaDow's bill to purchase the Mearham, Canyon and Blue Mountain Wagon roads, on second reading was referred to a select committee of three, and on motion of Mr. Cooper, Messrs. Cooper, LaDow and Thornbury were appointed as said committee.

Mr. Simpson discovered that a mistake had led him to offer a resolution regarding the time of meeting for the election of a United States Senator, and moved to reconsider the motion adopting that resolution. The motion prevailed, and after its reconsideration the resolution was laid on the table.

The House received a message from the Senate stating that the bill for the construction of a wagon road through Jackson, Grant and Baker counties had been passed by the Senate. The bill was read first time in the House, and passed to second reading.

The select committee to whom H. B. No. 12 providing for the construction of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, had been referred, reported said bill back with sundry amendments and recommended the passage of the same. The committee, among other things, reported that a narrow gauge would cost but $10,000 a mile, and that by various portage tracks the completion of this road would open to navigation the whole Columbia river. The amendments referred to consisted of the filling out of dates, and an additional section providing for the construction of a branch road to Baker City. These amendments were adopted by a unanimous vote, and on motion of Mr. Simpson the bill was ordered engrossed and ordered printed second time.

Mr. Crawford then offered the following:

Resolved, That the House meet this afternoon for the purpose of electing a U. S. Senator.

The resolution was adopted, and House adjourned till afternoon.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

House convened at usual hour.

H. B. No. 30, relative to the duties of the State Treasurer, and defining the fiscal years, was read a second time, considered, engrossed and ordered to a third reading to-morrow.

H. B. No. 78 was introduced by Mr. Engle, relative to civil and criminal procedure. Further consideration of the bill seeming necessary, on motion of Mr. Engle, the bill was laid on the table till Wednesday afternoon.

H. B. No. 20, being the order for the hour, was brought before the House.

Mr. Mason moved to strike out "or" of any foreign country.

Mr. Simpson said this was virtually striking out the heart of the bill, and would prevent the [illegible] of any foreign capital. He knew that within 45 days after the passage of the bill there would be $500,000 of foreign capital brought into the State. He argued danger from land monopoly; would we receive aid from without, thousands of acres of land would be that [illegible] for years.

Mr. Caples could not let this pass without [illegible] ourselves of the importance of the [illegible] the State needed was foreign capital. The want of this had disabled us so that we were now ten years behind the age. The speaker compared the condition of [illegible] California before the passage of a similar act, with her condition at the present time. The changes were [illegible] ous. The Columbia river had long been a [illegible] obstacle to the opening of Eastern Oregon, because there was not capital enough invested in the State to [illegible] that river. Money in Portland is drawing one per cent. per month, while in other States it was a drug in the market at six per cent. a year. The speaker [illegible] the complaint he had heard of the monopoly on the Willamette river. A little competition of foreign capital [illegible] obviate any such monopoly.

Mr. Mason moved to refer the bill back to the [illegible] tee for amendment.

The House refused to agree to Mr. Mason's motion, and the vote was polled with the following result: ayes, 36; noes, 14. So the bill [illegible]

Mr. Buskey's bill to incorporate [illegible], having passed to a third reading, came up for final action, and passed by a unanimous vote.

A Senate bill defining the boundaries of Grant county having passed that body, it was read first time in the House.

THE TERRITORIES.

By the premature explosion of a blast, on Wednesday, at the coal mine, [illegible], a miner lately from England, was [illegible] injured.

From real estate speculators we learn that a few acres anywhere within ten miles of [illegible] is a good thing. Land that thirty days ago was a drug in the market at $5 per acre is now in [illegible] demand at $25 and $50.

We are indebted to the West Washington Industrial Association for a complimentary [illegible] to the Second Annual Fair of that Society, which is to be held at Olympia from the 9th to the 12th day of October, inclusive.

In the Washington Territorial penitentiary there are only ten convicts. Last week two were discharged; one of whom was imprisoned for selling liquor to Indians, and the other (out on $500 bonds) waiting trial for perjury.

Paymaster Tuttle, of the Lackawanna, has been detailed as astronomer of the surveying force in the Pacific, under the command of Commodore Skerett. The object of the expedition is to survey such parts of the Pacific as may be necessary to make a perfect chart for the use of ships.

A party of old Cariboo miners, who have been engaged in mining for the past fourteen years, are now organizing in Seattle with a view of making a thorough exploration in the region of the Snoqualmie for minerals. From the indications found there they are confident of success.

At Utsalady on the 17th inst. two Indian chiefs of the Skagit tribe, named Paul and Tom, (brothers) being on an afternoon excursion in the bay, and the worse for whisky, [illegible] canoe and were drowned within a short [illegible] from shore. Their bodies have not been recovered. So says the Colonist.

Dispatches received from Camp Harney report the killing of a man named [illegible] by Indians at Bear Creek, six miles distant, on the 17th inst. He had nine bullets in his body. Four mules were driven off, and the harness cut to pieces, and three men are missing. A party of cavalry started in pursuit of the Indians this morning at daybreak. This is believed to be the beginning of serious Indian troubles in that section.

At the late session of the Grand Lodge of Free Masons for Washington Territory, held at Olympia, the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing Masonic year: Granville O. Haller, M. W. Grand Master (re-elected); Edward S. Kearney, R. W. Deputy Grand Master; J. W. Brazee, Senior Grand Warden (re-elected); J. A. Kuhn, Junior Grand Warden; B. Harned, Grand Treasurer, Thomas M. The Tribune says: "The celebrated Dolly Varden case, wherein the women of Steilacoom, after raising $300 by subscriptions, concerts, tea parties and dances, fell to quarrelling over its disposition, is still unsettled. Some of the [illegible] favored building a city hall with the money; others thought an Episcopalian Church more necessary; and a third party wanted a hearse. As $300 was not enough to secure all three measures, a lively law suit was the consequence. The decision of Judge Jacobs is anxiously awaited."

General Cowan, Assistant Secretary of War, and head of the Commission to the Sioux Indians, arrived at Chicago on the 10th inst. The Commissioners visited the Upper Missouri, in the very heart of the Indian country, where they held a council with savages. They had a dangerous trip from Corinne to Helena, were one hundred and eight hours in the stage without rest, and once attacked by a party of roving Indians. The council with the Indians was held at Fort Peck, and some of the tribe who have been fierce and troublesome were induced to accompany the Commissioners to Washington.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SEPT 25 1872

Specific

We published in the OREGONIAN of Monday the [illegible] instant the following

A certain Minister of the Gospel being at Salem last week and naturally feeling some interest in the Senatorial contest expressed his preference for Mr Corbett When he went to leave he presented to the ticket agent the half pass usually given to ministers Imagine his surprise upon being informed that orders had been received to [illegible] charge him full fare He had forfeited his character as a minister by expressing [illegible] preference for a man whom the ring opposed We can be specific if required

The Herald of yesterday morning quotes our statement and says

We give broad denial to the statement and call upon the OREGONIAN to be specific

The following is, in all probability sufficiently specific

The above statement from the OREGONIAN is correct, and I am the minister referred to

SALEM, Sept 24 1872.

Why Should Republicanism be Perpetuated?

The business affairs by which we are every day surrounded contain a strong argument why the people of the United States should perpetuate the existence of the Republican party The condition of every honest man the resources of every laboring man the accumulations of every business man and the state of trade and finance generally are arguments which, combined present themselves as substantial reasons why this party should still control in the affairs of this Government In what country on the face of the globe do we find the prices of labor and of land fixed on a more solid basis than we do in the United States. And this is not a fortuitous result from chance merely, but is as much due to a wise system of laws and judicious management of governmental affairs as the inclination of all dense bodies to the earth's surface is to the law of gravitation Without a wise system of laws to enable the business man to prosper he would inevitably descend into bankruptcy The demand for all our products whether from the soil or out of our manufacturing establishments, is good, and is founded upon a logical and just operation of business produced by such a governmental encouragement of the people in all those enterprises which tend to make a people progressive, vigorous and prosperous Was this so under modern Democratic rule? and if not, what was the reason? Why were not the wages earned by the laborer what they are now, before the war of the rebellion? We had the same material then in the bowels of the earth and men of brain and muscle on its surface But there lacked the encouragement of a liberal Government, because the administration which then directed and controlled public affairs looked on labor as only to be endured and elevated the ruling power in the land so far above it as to place it beyond the mass as a blessing. Now the government as directed by a wise Republican policy is as near the people as it can be brought, so near, indeed that the humblest laborer, equally with the millionaire, feels its influence for good As an illustration of this, it is asserted and can not be successfully contradicted, that during the ten years since the Republican party took the reins of this Government, more laboring men and mechanics have acquired homes within the limits of the United States than were able to do so under forty years of Democratic rule, and what is more, every dollar invested in land has enhanced in value two, three and even four-fold A matter which now-a days often puzzles the European traveler in this country, is the vast number of real estate owners, but the student of our policy of Government and the publicists who understand our system never fail to attribute these results to the wise and liberal management of that party which not only studies the prosperity of the governed but has saved the Government from destruction

Prices labor, land, are the planks of the platform on which every Republican candidate for a national office now stands and a candid consideration of the position of our party on these vital matters will evolve the strongest arguments for the perpetuation of the party and the re election of General Grant to the office he has so honorably filled for four years When the honest laboring man comes to deliberate as to the choice of a party, he need only compare his daily wages with what he received twelve years ago in any State east of the Rocky mountains He can look around on what he owns estimate its market value and compare it with what it would have been and its probable value under the condition of affairs which then existed, and how he has been enabled to acquire it. It came by hard toil certainly but what produced the reward for that labor? Who created the market to dispose of his product? Who, in the language of another brought the oceans together and lessened the lengths of the land? We answer the Republican party wise, grand and glorious in its design triumphant and blessed in its great accomplishments This party again joins issue with the foes of progress under another name but having the same characteristics as the old enemy Men of Oregon consider these things and choose wisely and we shall have no fear as to the voice with which you will speak in November

The Herald yesterday in an article on the decline of American commerce would have the people go back on the record they have made during the past ten years and restore to power the Democratic party It says

"Would it not be well to try again those men whose wise counsels did so much for the country"

At the first glance at the above we could hardly believe that we read it aright What do the Liberal Republicans with whom the Democrats claim to be acting in good faith think of the proposition What would the great Horace think of it Turn back to the files of the New York Tribune reader and see what Greeley thought of these wise counsellors' when they were in power But the proposition is too absurd to be answered We imagined that even Democrats had long ago considered the abandonment of their party a foregone conclusion but it seems we still have some who would call Breckinridge and Davis and Barksdale and all that ilk back into the halls of Congress and have the people hark back to their counsels because forsooth they did so much for their country So much of what What did their alleged wise counsels lead to? The answer is written in the history of the Nation and every school boy reads it They led the Nation to the verge of disruption and destruction from which the great Republican party has rescued it and restored it to a proud and glorious position among the nations of the earth and encouraging and fostering those institutions and those only which tend to develop our strength and render permanent our prosperity has ushered in a new era in our history and made us what our resources make us capable of being the greatest Nation in the world No—the people might do a good many foolish and absurd things but Americans will never so far forget the past as to grant the Herald wish and give the Government back into the hands of the men who controlled it in the days of slavery

FROM THE CAPITAL

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT

SALEM Ogn Sept 24 1872

The play which has had such a run at the Opera House under the name of 'caucus' was withdrawn from the bills last night It closed with what is called a 'nomination' and the chief actors are now loudly claiming that the wishes of the party—the dear party whose will with them has always (?) been law—are now expressed in favor of Mr Mitchell They ignore the fact that of the 27 men who procured this 'expression' 9 were only elected after pledging themselves on the stump to a different course of action, 3 only hold their seats until the committee on elections can get in their report 5 were notoriously nominated by fraudulent means and 2 hold over from counties which have unequivocally expressed themselves for Mr Corbett It is confidently asserted on the streets to day and was yesterday that having by good management procured 30 Republican votes for the 'ring' they will 'secure enough Democrats by moral suasion' to ensure an election This will be a bitter pill for those pure partyists who would not vote with a Democrat even if the Democrat was right but having started down that grade it is questionable whether any of them can stop before reaching the bottom The vote to be taken at 12 M to-day will probably show what effect the 'nomination' is to have

PERSONAL RENCOUNTER

The monotony of the constant excitement about Senator was unpleasantly relieved yesterday morning by a difficulty between ex Senator Nesmith and J C Moreland Esq of your city They met in front of the Chemeketa House Nesmith said, 'Is your name Moreland?' to which Moreland replied 'Yes sir How do you do, Col Nesmith' Nesmith replied with an abusive epithet and slapped him on the cheek Moreland placed himself in a position of defense, and his assailant struck him on the head with a cane By this time parties interfered, and the only damage done was to a new silk hat which was badly smashed The difficulty originated from a report of Nesmith's speech at the Dalles, last spring, and which he claims was unfairly reported in the OREGONIAN Singularly enough no political significance is attached to the matter by any one

MISCELLANEOUS

The rain which has fallen so plentifully during the past three days has been very useful Farmers who visit the capital say that it will be of immense benefit to early grain and parties interested in the State Fair predict that as it insures a good track and clean roads it will add largely to the attendance on that meeting

If many more visitors come to town the place must be enlarged The Chemeketa is full and the Commercial has been overflowing for several days The enterprising proprietors of this house have chartered all the rooms to be had for several blocks around, and continue to furnish accommodations to all who come They already have as many boarders who lodge elsewhere as they have in the house

The Waldron theatrical troupe are playing to fair houses and are furnishing the best performances which have ever been brought out in Salem The company is so large that I fear they do not more than pay expenses but no doubt next week will make amends To night they play the 'Octoroon' which will probably bring out a good house and is sure to be a popular piece

The House spent the greater part of the forenoon amending Col Chapman's railroad bill in various minor points after which it was ordered printed A resolution was adopted fixing the Senatorial vote at [illegible] P M to-day and the House adjourned to half past one

The Senate passed a bill authorizing the Supreme Court to employ a bailiff Mr Webster introduced a bill to provide for the sale of tide lands belonging to the State also a bill to require the Willamette Falls Canal Company to pay [illegible] per cent of the gross receipts into the school fund At 12 o'clock the Senate proceeded to ballot for U S Senator Mr Cornelius nominated J H Mitchell who received eight votes Mr Bristow nominated H W Corbett who received three votes Mr Hoult nominated Ben Whiteaker who received five votes Mr Brown of Baker nominated J H Slater who received three votes Mr Myers nominated J W Nesmith who received three votes and the Senate adjourned to [illegible] this afternoon

THE N P R R [illegible]—Our attention has been called to the fact that some of the Portland papers have accused the N P R R Co of chicanery in so having framed an amendment to their charter as to obviate the necessity of connecting their road with that city as required by the provisions of the original bill The charge has escaped our attention but we are informed that it originated with the editor of the [illegible] a weekly railroad paper published in Portland If the conductors of that paper will examine the act of Congress passed May 31 1870 which constitutes the amendment alluded to they will find therein the following provision which ought to put a quietus upon an assertion which is [illegible] and is calculated to reflect discreditably upon the officers of said Company

And that twenty-five miles of said main line between its western terminus and the city of Portland shall be completed by the first day of January A D 1872 and forty miles of the remaining portion thereof each year thereafter until the whole shall be completed between said points

If the English language means anything the conclusion must be inevitable that the law contemplates a continuous line of railroad between Portland and the point which may be selected as the western terminus on Puget Sound—[illegible]

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

SALEM Sept 23 1872

At a caucus of Republican members of the Legislature thirty four members were present

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted

WHEREAS There are forty three Republican members in the present Legislative Assembly therefore

Resolved That it shall require twenty two votes to nominate and the person who shall receive twenty two votes in this caucus shall be declared the nominee of the caucus and of the Republican party as candidate for United States Senator, and we do jointly and severally hereby pledge ourselves to vote for and exert our influence to secure the election of such person

Resolved That the vote in this caucus for candidate for U S Senator shall be viva voce

On motion it was resolved to go into the nomination of a candidate for United States Senator

Hon J H Mitchell was placed in nomination and received twenty seven votes

On motion of Mr Brown of Marion Mr Mitchell's nomination was made unanimous

On motion the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted

WHEREAS We the Republican Senators and Representatives of the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon are informed by a letter written by the Hon Geo H Williams that he declines an election to the Senate of the United States, a position which he has filled during six years with great ability and in a manner highly creditable to himself, and reflecting honor on our State therefore

Resolved That while we regret the voluntary act of the Hon George H Williams declining an election to the Senate of the United States we recognize the fact that he occupies the high and honorable position of Attorney General where his services are valuable to the people of the Nation, that we have confidence in his integrity, his patriotism, his ability and his statesmanship, that we regard him as a true and earnest Republican who has faithfully labored to promote the best interests of the people of the whole country and to advance the growth and prosperity of our State while a member of the Senate of the United States and as a member of the Cabinet and that we are grateful to President Grant for placing in his Cabinet one so worthy and so able to preside over the Department of Justice

On motion a committee of two was appointed to wait upon Hon J H Mitchell inform him of his nomination and request his presence

MR MITCHELL'S ACCEPTANCE

The Committee having waited upon Mr Mitchell and informed him of his nomination he appeared and accepted the nomination in the following terms

Mr President Fellow Republicans members of the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon

I can assure you it is with emotions of deep gratitude that I have received the announcement from your committee, that through the generous expression of your confidence I have become your candidate, the candidate of the Republican party in the Legislative assembly, and of the Republican party at large in the State of Oregon for the high position of United States Senator I am, gentlemen profoundly sensible of the high compliment embodied in the result of your deliberations and for this generous manifestation of your confidence in me as a man, as a citizen, and as an humble member of that party to which we are all proud to belong you will each and all please accept the free gift of a grateful heart It is scarcely necessary for me to say that I cheerfully accept the nomination so generously and unanimously made by you and should that nomination be ratified by you and your fellow Republican members now absent as I have no doubt it will be and should I be called upon to act as one of your representatives in the highest councils of the nation although I should approach the performance of the important duties of that exalted position with distrust in my own ability and with fear and trembling, I can assure you gentlemen, it would be my earnest desire, my fondest ambition to so regulate my conduct as to cause you never to regret the choice you have made this evening

To maintain the integrity and to labor for the perpetuity of the Republican party to aid in preserving forever, imperishable as the stars, those immortal principles which underlie its very existence, to strive for the elevation of our young and noble State—to develop its resources, to stimulate its energies, to vitalize its industries, to widen its influence, to construct its railroads, to enlarge and protect its commerce, to build up its manufactories, to encourage its agriculture, to unfold its mineral wealth to augment its power and maintain its dignity, and exalt its fair name at home and abroad—these, gentleman, are things the accomplishment of which should receive my earnest consideration, my studied efforts and should attract my loftiest ambition

The contest that has just resulted in my nomination has, as between the friends of the respective candidates, been spirited and somewhat prolonged, but it is gratifying to know that a spirit of good feeling and harmony, free as a rule with few exceptions, from that acrimonious discord so often occurring in heated political campaigns even in our own party And although a few of our Republican friends have as yet declined to join you in your deliberations I have faith in their patriotism and integrity of purpose to believe that they will yet deem it for the best interests of our whole party to cheerfully acquiesce in the proclaimed will of the majority

To those Republican members of the Legislature who have given their influence to my competitor up to the present time, I cheerfully accord motives prompted by judgments looking to the highest and best interests of the Republican party, and the material prosperity of the whole State I should have been gratified with their support from the first, but I am capable I trust of holding in high regard an open manly opponent, believing as I do that such an one will cheerfully acquiesce in the decision of a majority It is within the party that all differences of opinion as to men should be settled

The preservation of harmony in and the perpetuity of the Republican party are of infinitely more importance to the people of this State and Nation than is the personal promotion of any living man And it is alone by standing together as a unit strong and as one man, that the Republicans in the present Legislature will be enabled to maintain the harmony and promote the welfare of the Republican party And I have full pride in the political integrity and the faith and patriotism of every Republican member of the present Legislative Assembly to believe that they will, forgetting their personal preferences unite as one man and thus procure a complete triumph to the Republican party of this State in the approaching Senatorial election

In doing this you give a mighty impulse an irresistible stimulus to that patriotic influence now pervading the public mind and which will continue to increase in power all over the land until Grant and Wilson our present National Standard Bearers are triumphantly elected

But I did not intend to make a speech So again thanking you sincerely gratefully for this generous manifestation of your confidence and esteem I bid you good night hoping and trusting that all your deliberations may be characterized by that true spirit of concession and harmony so essential to the preservation of the unity of the Republican party and the general good of the State and nation

On motion of Mr Mallory the following address was unanimously adopted

Pursuant to the Constitution the Congress has by law provided the time and mode of choosing Senators to represent the respective States In compliance with the provisions of that law the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon will be required to morrow to cast its vote for a person to fill that office for six years from the 4th day of March, 1873 A somewhat radical difference of opinion has existed among Republican members of the Legislature as to what is the best and proper course to be pursued in selecting a person to be voted for by the Republicans in their respective Houses as well as in Joint Convention a large majority amounting to nearly three fourths of all the Republicans in the Legislature favoring the caucus and the remaining members opposing it A large majority of the Republicans of the Legislature recognizing the necessity of unity of action to secure success and avoid defeat and recognizing also the fundamental doctrine upon which our Government is based that majorities must rule and not unmindful of the fact that it was through the use of the party machinery of caucuses and conventions that they were selected to represent the people in the Legislative Halls met in caucus pursuant to the call of its President after public notice there had been given in both Houses of the Legislature on the [illegible] instant and by a vote of three fourths of all the Republican members of the Legislature nominated Hon John H Mitchell to be voted for as the Republican candidate for U S Senator

It is now most earnestly hoped that the nomination will meet the approbation and secure the united support of all the Republican members of the Assembly That a nomination made by such a majority is the best indication of the choice of the Republican party cannot with reason be disputed Personal preferences ought to be given up and the will of the majority be obeyed if we hope to maintain our organization or to achieve our ends as a party The contest has been long and animated but since it is impossible that all should win there is no other rule for settling who the winner shall be either in principle or by precedent than by the majority Let this be done and we shall demonstrate not only to the wily foe who is most ambitious to compass our defeat but more especially to our faithful constituency that we cannot only win a victory but preserve for them its fruits

On motion the caucus adjourned

CITY.

A WILD CHINAMAN —The peaceful and orderly community about Monticello was thrown into great confusion by the sudden appearance of a wild Chinaman in that vicinity on last Saturday A man residing near Monticello observed a wild and crazy looking Chinaman in his garden to the rear of the house last Saturday The Celestial wore a wild strange countenance his cue was unbraided and hung in confused locks about his person, and he was clad literally in rags When observed he had an ax in his hands and was slashing into the gardener's corn cabbage and pumpkins, and committing sad destruction among the [illegible] The man rightly surmised that the creature was either wild or crazy and he resolved to put a quietus to his wanton ravages Knowing that to approach a crazy Chinaman armed with an ax would not be unattended with danger he took [illegible] and started for the reckless heathen [illegible] within about twenty yards of the lunatic the man shouted to him to stop at the same time [illegible] his weapon in a threatening manner The Chinaman was so deeply engaged in his work of destruction that he did not observe the owner [illegible] On hearing the man's voice and perceiving that he was "heeled" for any emergency the lunatic fled precipitately from the place. He leaped the garden enclosure, disappeared in the timber near by, and was seen no more The man did not pursue him further than the fence, and then abandoned the chase The Chinaman, after his [illegible] departure from the gardener's premises, made for a camp of graders on the line of the [illegible] Pacific Railroad about half a mile distant. Being near the hour of noon he found a [illegible] boiling, and the cook busily engaged in the preparation of the mid day meal. No [illegible] did the demented creature see [illegible] then he went for it with a destructive vengeance With one fell stroke of his ax he dashed [illegible] to pieces, scattering the contents [illegible] in all directions Having done this he broke and fled, not offering any violence [illegible] A small trail led off through the forest in the direction of a house where a family [illegible] The cook perceived at a glance that the [illegible] in his demented condition, and armed with an ax, would be a dangerous person to pay [illegible] to a defenceless woman and children [illegible] to follow the Chinaman and prevent his [illegible] any depredations Snatching up a [illegible] shotgun, the cook dashed off [illegible] the timber with the determination, to [illegible] the fleeing lunatic or counteract him A brisk run of fifteen minutes brought the cook to the farm house, but none of the members had seen anything of a demented Celestial The cook [illegible] some time, but seeing nothing of the fugitive, concluded he had turned aside from the trail, and gone off in some other direction, he shouldered his gun and started back to the camp [illegible] the cook took the trail leading [illegible] to camp Fearing he would be a [illegible] he hurried along carelessly, not dreaming of encountering the Chinaman When about half way between the house and the camp the [illegible] rushed out of the brush, and with [illegible] axe made for the cook No alternative was left the latter but to fire The distance [illegible] them was scarcely more than fifteen [illegible] and "John" was advancing at a rate, and in a menacing attitude, which left no doubts as to his fell designs. The cook discharged one barrel, but before he could fire the other, the maniac was on him. He warded off the stroke of the axe the best he could, and "closed in" with his antagonist. The Chinaman was quick and wirey, but he could not withstand the strength of the brawny cook He was tripped up, and hurled to the earth with a violence, knocking both the wind and consciousness out of him The cook then perceived for the first time that the charge had taken [illegible] Two buck shot were found lodged in the poor fellow's thigh Shouts soon brought several men from the camp, and the Celestial was brought in. As soon as he recovered his breath, he fought like a wild beast, and was so furious that the men [illegible] to confine him in an old barn near [illegible] he was [illegible] securely and his food [illegible] through a crack The poor creature was [illegible] days raving from the wandering of [illegible] and the delirium caused by his fever [illegible] A physician was sent from Kalama [illegible] who went over and dressed his [illegible] At the latest accounts the Chinaman [illegible] like a tiger, no one offering [illegible] of him, or pay for his passage to [illegible] The authorities of that [illegible] should be [illegible] of the facts, and [illegible] removed to a [illegible] where he can be restrained from [illegible] and receive the [illegible] medical [illegible]

Half Alive

It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility They complain of no specific disease they suffer no positive pain but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure to their more robust and energetic fellow beings

In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimilation of the food every organ is starved every function interrupted

Now what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression The system needs rousing and strengthening; not merely for an hour or two to sink afterwards into a more pitiable condition than ever (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to) but radically and permanently

How is this desirable object to be accomplished ! The answer to this question founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century is easily given Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters Do not waste time in administering temporary remedies but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain head of physical strength and energy the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support

By the time [illegible] dozen doses of this great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence Appetite will be created and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves Persevere until the cure is [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] blood fit to be the [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] bone and [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] the channels of circulation instead of the watery [illegible] with which they have been imperfectly nourished

Witches' Scene from Macgreeley.

WHICH IS SEEN TO BE A FACT.

Round about the cauldron go,
In the nauseous notions throw!
Scalp of Davis, Trumbull's hair,
Head of Adams, hand of Blair,
Palmer's late dejointed nose,
Voorhees' fingers, Hendricks' toes,
Jeff's bedraggled petticoat,
Sumner's speeches, learned by rote,
Greeley's old secession writing,
Ku Klux laws like caustic biting,
Stephens' sermons, dull and dry,
Mixed with concentrated lie,
Moistened well with brandy straight,
Say six glasses—maybe eight.

Double, double, toil and trouble!
Let the cauldron boil and bubble!
Here the "Liberal" hogs must wallow,
All they hated they must swallow.

Round the cauldron went and sing,
In the unpleasant items fling!
In the pot the poison throw,
Breast of buzzard, craw of crow,
Cherries ripe, and claws of crab,
Make the mixture thick and slab;
State-rights doctrines simmered down,
Old Democracy done brown,
Schurz's sweetest German tones,
Union soldiers' buried bones,
Toombs' spit and Phillips' gabble
Northern mudsills, Southern rabble,
Wise's nonsense, Sumner's cant,
Anything on earth but Grant!

Double, double, toil and trouble!
Let the cauldron boil and bubble!
Stir the monstrous mixture well,
Taste it often, never smell;
Fear no stroke of cholera nor bus
While our hopes of spoil absorb us.

Dance about the boiling pot,
Keep the mixture thick and hot;
Round about the cauldron go,
Bill and Joe will puff and blow;
Schurz will help them, somewhat loth;
Both the Blairs will boss the broth;
Throw in Tipton, toss in Tweed,
John Forsyth and Whitelaw Reid,
Dana's sunbeams, Pomeroy's bricks,
Will like oil and water mix,
And the poisonous copperhead.
Pile in the memories of the dead—
John Brown's body, Lincoln's ghost;
Shackles, chains and whipping posts,
Pryor's pistol, Brooks' cane,
Blood of patriots spilled in vain.
Such a mess will free the nation
From its ka—ious (hic!) prostration.

Double, double, toil and trouble!
Let the cauldron boil and bubble!
Dip your spoons and all begin.

Good Testimony for Grant—Governor Buckingham Speaks.

It is fortunate that there is better evidence concerning the personal habits of President Grant than that of the malicious slanderer, "Rev." C. W. Denison. Senator Buckingham, in a recent speech at Stamford, said:

"A deal has been said about the habits of President Grant. It will not be possible for me to prove a negative, therefore I can't say; I can't prove that the President has been under the influence of intoxicating drinks, but will say this, that I have seen him and been with him on various occasions, public and private, at his house and mine, and I have known something of his habits of life. I was with him on the Fourth of July two years ago. I entertained him at my table. I went with him to the city of New London, and there we sat at the public table, where there was wine. I don't know that he drank a drop; if he had drank anything of consequence I should have known it. After dinner he was suffering very severely with headache, and it was difficult for him to meet his friends; and yet he stood for over an hour to receive their congratulations. I went with him to the steamboat, and afterward to the hotel; where, when he retired, he was still suffering. Now, I say this, that he had one of those periodical headaches which he has at times, when he can not entertain men, and that it is in consequence of this that the people have gone away and reported that because of his habits he was unable to do business. I will say further, that I have never seen him when he has been any more under the influence of ardent spirits than our chairman is now. [Applause.] I will say of the men who are acquainted with him, that I never saw one or heard one say that he had ever seen him under the influence of intoxicating drinks. I say that these reports in regard to his habits are, in my judgement, the reports of his enemies. [Loud applause.] They are base slanders. [Renewed applause.] There is nothing in his habits or character which robs me of my confidence in him. I know that he is a man of great integrity, and I don't believe that there is any reward you or any one can bestow that will make him swerve from the course which is for the best interests of this Republic. I will say further, that I have never known a public man who appeared to be governed less by personal ambition than Ulysses S. Grant. [Applause.] I say still further, that you may be with him in private and in public, and you will have to be with him more than I have been before you hear him utter one word in commendation of his services while he was General in the army."

Senator Buckingham, as is well known, is president of the State Temperance Union, and an officer of the Congressional Temperance Society. He would have been as likely as any man in Washington to have known of any irregularities on the part of the President.

Grand Larceny—A Wife and a Thousand Dollars Stolen.

Captain Badger, Chief of Police, on yesterday received the following letter from a lamenting husband. It tells a strange story in an amusing way, and the author may be complimented upon the powers of description. One after reading this letter would come to the conclusion that the fascinating "Susannah" has been in the habit of traveling barefooted. Those of our readers who have wives are recommended to look out for the gay Lothario, for he may turn up in this section and ply his seductive arts upon the weaker sex of the Crescent City:

"A man giving his name Charles C——, was at work for me in July. He left my house on Saturday night, July 27th, taking with him my wife and about $1,000 of my money, a horse and two silver watches, one single and one double case. They were last heard from near——, going on foot in the direction of——. The horse has been recovered. The man is apparently a steamboatman, claims New Orleans as a home. He is about six feet high, thirty-five to forty years old, square shoulders, walks very straight, with a swinging gait, wears No. 9 shoes, toes turned out, had a heavy dark beard, smiles when he talks, dark complexion, weighs about one hundred and eighty pounds, dark yellow eyes, or perhaps dark blue.

"My wife is forty-six years of age, quite small weighs perhaps ninety-five to one hundred pounds, light complexioned but badly sunburnt, giving the appearance of being dark. She is a plain-looking old country woman, and addicted to smoking a pipe. Hair light, eyes blue, short, round foot, speaks coarse for a woman, chews tobacco, and has a long nose, slim nose—stands straight out, two front-teeth missing, and the rest of her teeth are defective. Her finger-nails are very large and flat, so much so as to be easily noticed. Her name is Susannah. Toe-nails are generally quite small, and most especially the little toe and next one to it. In her walk, toes turn in, right foot turns in more than the left, and she has a quick step."

The letter is accompanied by a note, suggesting that the man has "shaken" the woman; may be that he has made away with her, and a request is made that a sharp lookout may be kept for him.—New Orleans Picayune.

A New Pavement.—The Boston Daily Advertiser gives the following account of a new style of pavement in Union Square Park in that city

It is formed of a rock simply ground to powder and heated to a temperature of not less than 300 degrees. While hot this powder is spread evenly with a rake over a bed of cement, and is then compressed, by rollers, into a pavement, with neither joints nor seams, and impervious to water. Its surface is perfectly smooth, and there is no dust, mud or exhalations. It can be easily swept, and is not acted upon by the heat. The rock from which it is made is imported from Val de Travers, Neuchatel, Switzerland.

Gentlemen's Fashions.

A PEEP AT THE COMING STYLES.

London has always filled for men the position that Paris does for ladies, the fashions for the sterner sex inaugurated there have always found their way out to this Western world in the end. The New York Mail has advices of a change of costume of the London fashionables, which is quite interesting as an indication of what is coming. The correspondent says:

The style of dress most worn here by gentlemen of fashion, and especially noticeable at all fashionable places of morning resort, is a light-colored frock coat, usually a drab or gray twilled cashmere or fine angola, rather long in the waist and skirt, silk breast facings and bound with silk ribbon to match, or a velvet collar, plain facings and double-stiched edges, buttoned with three buttons. Waistcoat, white or striped marseilles, and trowsers of a dark blue diagonal or ribbed "worsted" cloth with a broad black mohair braid laid on flat on the side seams. This is decidedly reversing the order of dress, dark coat and light trousers, to which the habits of the last few years have accustomed us nevertheless it is a very stylish and effective costume especially adapted to and certain to be much worn during the early Autumn. A large "Stanley" or tied sailor's knot is usually worn, the made sailor's knots appearing to have gone out of fashion. Patent leather Oxford shoes with brown striped hose and buttoned boots of the same leather, with cloth uppers, are much affected. Morning coats are all made to wear two or even three buttons, buttoned and cut away sharp from the lowest one, but the style is very difficult to adapt with good effect to many figures. The latest styles of dress coats are noticeable for an entire absence of all angles, the collar forming a complete roll, usually faced with silk, the lower front edge of the forepart, which is made without what is technically called a "backstrap," and the top and bottom of the skirt being slightful and gracefully rounded off, which gives the coat a lighter and more elegant appearance than the old style, and is a step towards the more appropriate and consistent style of evening dress for gentlemen so much to be desired.

Agassiz.

HE DISCOVERS A STRANGE RACE OF ANIMALS.

From a letter written by Prof. Agassiz to his friend, Prof. Pierce, while on the voyage from Panama up the Pacific Coast, we make the following interesting extract:

Our visit to the Galapagos has been full of geological and zoological interest. It is most impressive to see an extensive archipelago, of most recent origin, inhabited by creatures so different from any known in other parts of the world. Here we have a positive limit to the length of time that may be granted for the transformation of these animals, if they are in any way derived from others dwelling in different parts of the world.

Galapagos are so recent that some of these islands are barely covered with the most scanty vegetation—itself peculiar to these islands. Some parts of their surface are entirely bare, and a great many of the crater and lava streams are so fresh that the atmospheric agents have not yet made an impression upon them. Their age does not, therefore, go back to earlier geological periods; they belong to our time, geologically speaking. Whence, then, do their inhabitants come from, animals, as well as plants? If descended from some other type belonging to some neighboring land, then it does not require such unspeakably long periods for the transformation of species as the modern advocates of transmutation claim, and the mystery of change, with such marked and characteristic differences between existing species, is only increased and brought to a level with that of creation. If they are not autochthones, from what germs did they start into existence? I think that careful observers, in view of these facts, will have to acknowledge that our science is not yet ripe for a fair discussion of organized beings.

The Nevada Mines.—The Controller of the State of Nevada set forth in his annual report to the date of December 31st, 1871, that the total bullion product returned to the Assessors for taxable purposes, for 1871, was $20,026,585 12, and the total amount of taxes thereon to the State was $98,218 09. The gross yield for 1870 was $11,557,896 39, and the amount of taxes paid to the State, $64,170 45. The gross yield of 1871 was nearly double that of 1870. Certain exemptions were made under the law then in force not at present existing. From the tabular statement, it appears that Lander stands third on the list as a bullion-producing county, Storey being first and Lincoln second. The table shows that Storey county produces over three times the number of tons that the rest of the State put together does, yet pays but little over twice the amount of State tax that Lincoln county does, showing a striking difference in the value of the ores reduced. White Pine county worked 38,604 tons to Lander's 25,995 tons, yet the gross yield of the former was only $1,187,121 73, and that of the latter, $2,099,013 91.—Call.

The St. Louis Democrat pities the city of pork-packing notoriety as follows: "There seems to be a general conspiracy against the city of Cincinnati. The coal fields were all located hundreds of miles away from it, the Ohio river is drying up, the Louisvillians are obstructing the canal, Kentucky opposes the construction of the Southern railroad, and Don Piatt was born there."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Tuesday Evening, Sept. 24, 1872.

Gold in New York to-day, 114½.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 86½c buying; 87½ selling.

In Liverpool, Wheat is worth about $3 24 per cental. Freights are $1 per cental. So long as so much Wheat offers for ships to take it, and the Liverpool price so great, ship-owners will keep up the rate on freight.

The steamer Ajax reached San Francisco last evening from this port.

The barks Electra and Navigator have in about 350 tons of Wheat each.

The brig Orient, from San Francisco, is at Kalama discharging railroad iron. She is expected up to-day.

The steamship California, for Victoria and Sound ports, took out 1,377 bbls Flour.

The Spanish bark Manila took in near 500 tons of Wheat and was taken in tow for some point down the river, where she will take in the balance of her cargo.

The Oregon City Woolen Manufacturing Company have reduced the prices for all their manufactured goods. The agents in this city are Messrs. Jacob Bros. & Co. and Allen & Lewis.

Within the last few days there has been free arrivals of Wheat, which have been taken by millers and one or two jobbers at $1 45 ₩ cental. Exporters continue to offer $1 40 ₩ cental. Purchases in the interior are reported as having been made at the above rates—$1 40 delivered here—with one sale of several hundred tons. We quote market at $1 45 to millers from wagon and $1 40 to exporters at the depot.

The Commercial Advertiser of a late date has the following in relation to the cultivation of Coffee:

The Hawaiian Government could not better evince its desire to advance the material interests of the country than by offering a large reward for the discovery of an effectual cure for the blight that attacks the coffee trees. There is no spot on earth—not excepting the famed Mocha—that produces better coffee, or which is better adapted by climate and soil to its growth, than the Kona side of the Island of Hawaii. Yet so destructive has been the blight in that district since its first appearance there, about twenty years ago, that not more than enough coffee is now raised for the home consumption, where the production ought to be counted by the millions of pounds.

Perhaps it may not be generally known that the production of coffee in the world does not keep pace with the demand. In the United States, the repeal of the duty has had the effect of raising the price, as holders are of the opinion that the consumption is sure to increase largely, while the supply is by no means on the increase. Many old sources of supply have ceased to produce. Coffee planting has entirely ceased in Jamaica since the emancipation of the slaves; in Cuba, aside from the internal troubles, the attention of the planters is mainly directed to sugar; San Domingo has a civil war that has reduced her production; Porto Rico goes in for sugar, and so on throughout the West Indies, the production is on the decrease. In Brazil, owing to the emancipation of the slaves, no increase can be expected. Manilla is on the decline. In India only there is activity in planting, English enterprise and capital having engaged in the business; but it will be years before the many new plantations there will make themselves felt in the markets. In the meantime, the world's consumption increases steadily; it is estimated at the rate of twenty per cent. a year. The question is being asked, where is the coffee to come from? The increased demand, and the enhanced price of the article, must result in a larger area being devoted to coffee planting somewhere.

Is there no cure discoverable for the coffee blight? We repeat, our Government could not better invest a few thousand dollars than in offering a reward for some mode of treatment or culture which shall remove this ban upon one of our otherwise most valuable resources.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, IN CONVENTION AT PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 6, 1872.

The Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872 again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country.

1. During the eleven years of its ascendancy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time, has suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses and has warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It inaugurated a new policy toward the Indians; the Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted to completion; the public lands have been freely given to actual settlers; immigration has been protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European powers. In the form of National currency, it has provided for the National credit and sustained it under the most extraordinary burdens. It has negotiated new bonds at lower rates of interest. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions from the rate of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during U. S. Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been averted, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in a high position throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the government to any party or combination of men, composed of those who chiefly have resisted every step in this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured the amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system, by a law which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a lifetenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free settlement by the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties on importations, which should be adjusted to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers, and to promote the industries and growth and prosperity of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for the country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the time of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, once a subject always a subject, having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Government, and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way proposed for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities add a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an important duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom, their application for admission to further usefulness is received with satisfaction; and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in granting amnesty to those engaged in the rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party proposes to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Territorial governments. It disapproves of asserting constitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship-building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day on a new march to victory.

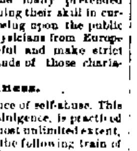
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of yearstanding) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of those horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.
